Indonesian Overseas Program (IOP) | www.acStudyAbroad.org/iop

STUDY ABROAD IN INDONESIA

☑ DEVELOP advanced language and intercultural skills
☑ EXCEL in small classes taught by expert faculty
☑ EARN U.S. academic credit
Indonesian Overseas Program (IOP)

IOP offers participants the opportunity to gain new cultural knowledge and language competency while experiencing the vibrant, rich traditions of Indonesia.

ACADEMICS
Participants receive 20 hours per week of in-class instruction. Small group classes are designed to strengthen speaking, listening, reading, and writing. Language courses also cover topics in literature, history, politics, culture, and area studies. Classes are conducted by University of Malang faculty with extensive experience teaching Indonesian to American students and yield 15 - 16 U.S. academic credit hours per semester.

ELIGIBILITY
IOP is open to graduate & undergraduate students with an interest in Indonesian language—no prior knowledge required.

SUPPORT SERVICES
The program provides pre-departure and in-country orientations for participants plus local infrastructure and around-the-clock emergency support. Additionally, participants receive comprehensive insurance coverage for the duration of the program.

APPLICATION DEADLINES
- March 15 for Fall & Academic Year
- October 1 for Spring semester

APPLY TODAY
A downloadable application and complete program information are available at:
☞ www.acStudyAbroad.org/iop

QUESTIONS?
✉ outbound@americanCouncils.org

Start your journey today.

PROGRAM SNAPSHOT
☐ PROGRAM FOCUS: Indonesian language; area studies
☐ INDONESIAN LANGUAGE PREREQUISITE: None (must be 18 to apply)
☐ LOCATION: Universitas Negeri Malang in Malang, Indonesia
☐ PROGRAM TERM: Fall, Spring, and/or Academic Year
☐ HOUSING/MEALS: Homestay with private room; host family provides 2 meals/day
☐ ADDITIONAL FEATURES: Excursions; conversation partners; weekly cultural activities